one or more family
photos that we may display this school year...

"We know that education does not just happen between the hours of 7am and 5pm. We know that education does not just happen within the walls of our school. And we know that education does not just happen with the teachers in the classroom. No, we cannot ignore the role of the family in a child's education. We are a team. Together, we are responsible for educating the child and raising him/her to be a good citizen of the world."

When we display photos of our families in and around our classroom, we are making a public gesture that families matter. Our kids are reminded about their family each time they enter the classroom. They know that their parents are invested in their education just as much as their teachers are...
